The Senatorial Situation.

Gov. BRADLEY Friday appointed Maj. A. T. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, to succeed Senator J. C. S. Blackburn in the United States Senate. Maj. Wood left Saturday for Washington, but it is freely said at the Capital that he would not be seated. Maj. Wood was given a splendid ovation by his fellow citizens at Mt. Sterling Saturday. Senator Teller will lead the fight against Maj. Wood.

Gov. Bradley has called a special session of the Kentucky Legislature to meet Saturday to elect a Senator. Blackburn will arrive to-day in Frankfort and will make a strong effort to prevent the election of a Republican. Hunter says that he is sure to be elected. He will establish headquarters at Frankfort to-morrow.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY received something like 5,000 visitors yesterday.

THE Indiana Legislature Saturday passed the Compulsory Education Bill.

THE NEWS returns thanks to Hon. W. C. Owens for a large map of the United States.

ABOUT 6,000 curious persons gathered to see President McKinley enter church Sunday.

EX-QUEEN LILIOUKALANI has asked President McKinley to grant her an audience.

THE Indiana Legislature adjourned Saturday. It has been an industrious body, and has passed some important measures.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY Saturday afternoon issued his proclamation calling an extra session of Congress for Monday, March 15.

HON. JAMES A. VIOLETT, vaguely claimed as one of the gold Democrats who would vote for Hunter, hotly denounces the story and Hunter, too.

LONDON is greatly excited over the situation in Crete. The French newspapers do not believe that Greece will positively refuse to accede to the demands of the Powers. A semi-official newspaper at Vienna asserts that Greece is by no means sure of the support of Serbia and Bulgaria in case of war with Turkey.

Theatrical And Otherwise—Remarks In The Foyer.

Nelson Wheatcroft, the actor, died of pneumonia last week in Philadelphia.

Chas. Dazey, author of "In Old Kentucky," "War of Wealth," and "In Mexico," is now in France, writing a Southern drama.

Attractions this week at Cincinnati theatres: Grand, "Too Much Johnson;" Walnut, Richard Mansfield; Fountain, "A Trip to Chinatown" (Laura Bigger and Burt Haverly); Henck's, Lewis Morrison in "Faust;" Robinson's, Katie Emmett.

Francis Jones, the singing comedian, is booked to appear at the opera house March 18, 19 and 20, with matinee on latter date. "In Old Madrid," "Follies of a Night," and "Subject of The Czar," are the plays to be produced. Al G. Fields' Minstrels come on the 23d.

The late Alexander Herrmann has a worthy successor in his nephew Leon Herrmann, who entertained a critical audience at the Grand last night, with skillful sleight-of-hand work, and the clever illusions, "Tribby," "The Asiatic Trunk Mystery," and "The Artist's Dream." Mme Adelaide Herrmann in her marvelously beautiful and graceful dances was a leading feature of the program, and won new admirers. Mme. Herrmann was a handsome and valuable aide to her nephew, Herrmann III, and they should have a most successful tour.

THE SPORTING CRAZE.

The Louisville Commercial last Tuesday said of the "The Sporting Craze," to be seen at the Paris Grand, Saturday night:

"The 'Sporting Craze' is a conventional farce comedy, which follows on the lines of many similar skits, which are designed to show off the talents of several lively comedians and comedians. The particular comedians in this case are Carlin and Clark and George H. Adams, the old clown. Songs and dances by all the members of the company form the basis of the entertainment. Josh Reuben is a sporty farmer who has political aspirations. He is opposed by the leader of the religious faction, Si Watson, and the fun hinges on the election, when both men run for Sheriff. Watson is 'doped,' and the fight is won for the sporting element. Carlin and Clark are two Dutch comedians who are agile and have a great deal of vocal and terpsichorean ability, and are the mainstays of the piece. George Adams makes a good clown in his well known specialties, and Miss Alice Hanson carried off honors in spite of a cold. The ladies quartet is good, and the bag punching of Frank Farley was excellent. The girls are shapely and active, and the company is above the average."

Ministers Should Use Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

THERE IS NO PROFESSION, whose labors so severely tax the nervous system, as that of the ministry. The derangement of the nerve centers of the brain by over work, frequently brings on attacks of heart trouble, and nervous prostration. Rev. J. P. Keister, M. D., Pastor of B. church, London Mills, Ill., himself a physician, writes Feb. 26, 1895: "Heart affection and nervous prostration had become so serious last fall that a little over work in the pulpit would so completely prostrate me that it seemed certain I must relinquish the work of the ministry entirely. Heart palpitation became so bad that my auditors would ask me if I did not have heart disease. Last November I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure alternately with Dr. Miles' Nerveine and derived the greatest possible benefit. I have just closed revival work of 10 weeks, preaching nearly every night and twice on the Sabbath. I can speak for hours without suffering as I formerly did. Hard working ministers should keep Dr. Miles' grand remedies on hand." Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on guarantee, first bottle will benefit or money refunded.
